ORGANIZATION

OF THE

CITY GOVERNMENT, JANUARY 3, 1898.

The mayor and council met at Memorial Hall at 7 o'clock in the afternoon on the first Monday of January, 1898.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor Adams, who spoke as follows:

VALEDICTORY OF MAYOR ADAMS

Gentlemen of the City Council of 1897:

The time for the dissolution of the present council has arrived, previous to which I desire to refer to the pleasure I have derived during the term as your presiding officer. I need not refer to the unanimity of opinion and action which has marked our sessions. The best evidence of harmony may be found by a careful examination of the records, which will show that your executive has not even once been obliged to exercise his veto power, that prerogative granted him under the charter of the city of Franklin. Regarding our financial condition I need not go into details at the present time. Having at the beginning of the year been outspoken for a clean, honest, economical, business-like, non-partisan administration, I am truly pleased to say that from you I have received cordial support, as the report soon to be issued will testify. Your personal friendship and loyalty I am proud of and for you and myself am thankful to say that the record of the year 1897 shows that we have accomplished the results for which I hoped: viz., reduction of indebtedness with its consequent diminution of interest accounts.

Mayor-elect Adams after taking the oath of office as mayor for the year 1898, before J. E. Barnard, Esq., and administering the oath to councilmen-elect Messrs. Collins of Ward 1, Judkins of Ward 2 and Hancock of Ward 3, delivered the following address:

MAYOR ADAMS' INAUGURAL

Gentlemen of the City Council of 1898:

It gives me great pleasure to participate in the organization of the present council. I shall not weary you with a long salutatory address, inasmuch as our municipal conditions and necessities have not materially changed since I addressed you one year ago. The reports and recommendations of the superintendents of the several departments will appear in the annual city report, which is under contract to be completed Jan. 30, to which I refer you for the details of the last year's work. I would call your attention to the lessons of the past year, a year of which we may justly be proud—the first since the organization of the city in which we have shown a net decrease rather than a net increase of our liabilities. The balance sheet of Dec. 31, 1897, is as follows:

FINANCIAL.

Liabilities.

Bonds of 1885,	$40,000 00
Memorial hall bonds,	30,000 00
Water works debt,	92,000 00
Franklin Savings Bank note,	5,000 00
Edgerly & Crocker note,	20,000 00
Coupons unpaid,	294 00
Total,	$187,294 00

Resources.

Tax list of 1897,	$5,196 52
Cash in treasury,	850 66
Due from Merrimack county,	2,918 24
Balance indebtedness,	178,328 58
Total,	$187,294 00

Net debt from report of 1896,	$180,264 64
Net debt Dec. 31, 1897,	178,328 58
Decrease of debt,	$1,936 06

We have demonstrated that the exercise of economy in municipal expenditures has and can pay all of our necessary expenses, promote permanent improvements and pay our indebtedness. This result was obtained after the payment of such extraordinary expenses as the settlement of a highway damage suit, payment for a crusher plant and the unusual losses to our highways as were received in the early part of the year. In my address of last January I advocated the advisability of living within our appropriations, which seemed sufficient for the several purposes named. I am pleased to state that this was done with two exceptions: viz., the highway appropriation was overdrawn $1,075.53 and the interest account, approximately, $150. Inasmuch as the latter represents the discount of a temporary loan due in June next the overdraft is apparent, though not real. In closing I can but reiterate the statement of my inaugural address of one year ago, "Economy and business methods should be the sentiment of a municipal administration." In pursuance of this I doubt not I shall have the support of the present council and beg to submit that your mayor has only the best interests of the city at heart and will stand unflinchingly for her prosperity.

BOARD OF HEALTH

REPORT

The city in the past year has been visited by six cases of diphtheria, two of which were fatal. Thirty-one cases of scarlet fever occurred, but fortunately in mild form, and with no deaths. Two cases of typhoid fever, one of which was contracted in the army, and proved fatal. Three cases of the measles. The origin of scarlet fever could not be definitely located, but it was thought to have been brought here from the suburbs, where some one so afflicted had no physician, and were negligent to use precautions.

It was deemed necessary to purchase a Formaldehyde gas generator for the purpose of fumigation, which is the more modern way, and which is less injurious to household articles, also this way is not so offensive as the old way, with sulphur. Several cases where nuisances occurred were disposed of by the board in the best manner possible. The board received the support of all our physicians, and thank them for the same.

No street mains have been laid during the year. The steam pump in No. 1 paper mill has deen connected with the well in the pumping station, so that in case of accident to the power pump in the station, the city can be supplied with spring water by steam power. The interest on water bonds paid by the city was $3,680. The value of the public water service furnished the city by the water works is, as estimated, $2,862.75. The excess paid by the city as interest, $817.25, has been paid to the city treasurer.

Since the inception of the water works the city has paid interest on the water bonds as follows:

1891, ...	$1,600 00
1892, ...	3,550 00
1893, ...	3,880 00
1894, ...	3,580 00
1895, ...	3,680 00
1896, ...	3,680 00
1897, ...	3,680 00
Total,	$23,650 00

During this time the public water service has been estimated as follows:

1891-2,	$2,740 00
1893,	2,620 00
1894,	2,665 00
1895,	2,670 00
1896,	2,680 00
1897,	2,813 13
Total,	$16,188 13

This shows that the city has paid in interest, $7,461.87 more than should be charged to it for fire protection and water used. This sum is properly a claim against the water works, and a debt due from them to the city. Out of the net rental, $2,500 has been turned over to the city treasurer in addition to the sum of $817.25 paid on account of the interest of the current year, leaving due the city on interest account $4,961.87. None of the water debt is payable until 1901. It is hoped the net revenue for the next two years will be sufficient to extinguish this indebtedness to the city on account of interest. Thereafter the excess of revenue will be applicable to the payment of the water debt.

In addition to the 71 public, there are 20 private hydrants. Most of the private hydrants are so situated that they can be used for advantage to protect other property beside that of the owners. The city has the right to use all hydrants for general fire purposes. The only difference between what are called public and private hydrants is that the private were put in without expense to the water works.

COMMENTS

The annual statistical report of the Board of Education relates especially to the school year beginning on Monday, September 13, 1897, and ending on Friday, June, 17, 1898.

We submit this report, fully conscious that there are still conspicuous weak spots in our school system yet with some degree of satisfaction, because we believe that the year has witnessed a steady improvement in the various lines of our school work.

So close is the relationship between the community and those officials to whom it has intrusted its educational interests that a full record of the year's doings seems not only expedient but obligatory. Yet it is not easy to make figures or words point out the significance of what is happening from year to year in our school life. At the best they reveal but little except to the comparatively few who are in close sympathy and touch with the aims and methods of the educational work of the day; for the members of the school board act not only as representatives of the community but, also, as servants of the state and thus find no small part of their duty in trying to keep pace, so far as the existing conditions will permit, with the demands of our state school system. This point should be kept in mind in the brief consideration of the following topics, especially as regards

EXPENDITURES.

Every citizen, however slight may be his interest in purely educational matters, is likely to be impressed with the fact that the annual maintenance of the schools involves the expenditure of a large amount of money. Unless he realizes what the requirements of modern education are—what the laws of the state oblige us to do—he may not feel with equal certainty that the money is prudently and wisely expended.

To do for the children of this city for the future what we ought to do in order to hold the position among the schools of the state which is rightfully ours, will involve the expenditure of more rather than less money. The community has always shown its confidence in the wise applicatian of school bunds by its chosen officials by cheerfully granting the needed appropriations, and will doubtless continue to do so, thus giving encouraging support of the work undertaken in its schools.

The itemized financial report shows the amount expended for school purposes.

The general supplies in the way of paper, pencils, pens, blank books, etc., seem to form an increasing item of expense each year, a fact which is accounted for largely by the increase in the number of pupils and the additional supplies necessary in the kindergarten and drawing departments.

While we seek to avoid a niggardly policy, and allow no teacher to be hampered in her work by a want of proper appliances, we, neverthelessfeel, the necessity of urging upon both teachers and pupils a wise economy in the use of these everyday supplies. With hundreds of children in our schools, the aggregate savings from small margins would give us many of the educational aids which we are often deprived of by a lack of funds. Teachers by inculcating careful habits of economy in the use of school property and supplies, serve not only the present interests of the community, but also its future welfare; for we are training future citizens.

A piano and set of relief maps—important permanent supplies—purchased last year caused a deficit in the year's appropriation which we could not make up this year.

The term beginning in September, 1898, has brought some extra expenses. It was thought best to open the Babbitt school which had been closed for two years. An extra teacher was necessary in the Falls schools because grades six and seven were too large to be combined this year. Another teacher has also been found necessary for the High school. With the opening of the spring term there will be absolute need of securing suitable quarters for the kindergarten on the west side of the river.

Thus it seems hardly possible to make the usual amount of appropriation meet the expenses of the coming year.

GRADING.

In the Falls schools the eighth and ninth grades are the only ones combined. A new rule was put in force this year. Hitherto the grading in the primary schools has been entirely upset by children being allowed to enter at any time during the year. Even though there may be but one grade in a room, it is always necessary to divide the children into groups according to their degree of advancement. As soon as a child shows his ability to do more and better work he is immediately placed in the next higher group. When, as has been the case, there is a considerable number of pupils entering at the opening of the spring term, it invariably results in confusion for all concerned. The teacher is using all her energies to get her class in good condition for promotion at the end of the year and feels that she can ill afford the time to begin the year's work over again with an entering class. The first term of school is an exceedingly important one for the child and, no matter how conscientious the teacher may be in her efforts, when his first term is the last term of the school year, the time is practically lost to him. Meanwhile the regular class suffers from the intrusion.

Strongly convinced, therefore, that our primary schools are injured by allowing an entering class in the spring, the Board has decided to allow no children attending school for the first time to enter except during the first few weeks of the school year. Children becoming of school age soon after the opening of school in September, will be allowed to enter at the beginning of the year.

KINDERGARTENS.

It is especially confusing to have a class entering the kindergarten in the spring. Anyone who knows anything about kindergarten work, knows that it is utterly impossible to have two classes in the same room at the same time. So, unless we can afford to have two sessions of kindergarten, we shall be compelled to follow the same rule in this school as in the primary grades.

While parents seem interested in the work of the kindergarten, not all of them appreciate its whole purpose in aiding the development of children along the lines which are entirely natural. It is not designed for mere entertainment. Every part of the work has a purpose. Promptness and regularity of attendance are as essential as in other grades.

We have spoken earlier in the report of the kindergarten connected with the Nesmith school and of the need of better accommodations for it. We have made several unsuccessful attempts to secure a suitable room for this school. Some plan must be arranged to accomplish this before another year.

ATTENDANCE.

An epidemic of scarlet fever during this last term will make the record of attendance for the next school year unusually bad. We were fortunate, however, in not being obliged to close our schools. The work of the entire year would have been practically spoiled had this measure been necessary.

Irregularity of attendance from whatever cause interferes seriously with the accomplishment of the year's work. We have an excellent truant officer, but we cannot help deploring the necessity of forcing attendance.

There is complaint—and need of it—that the law of compulsory attendance for all those of school age is not enforced. We hope in the future to compel a more wholesome regard for the law on the part of employer and employed. Printed blanks are now being prepared according to the plan of some of our larger cities which, it is hoped, will serve to bring into co-operation all the forces necessary to bring about a reform in this matter.

SEWING.

We mentioned in our report for last year the introduction of instruction in sewing in some of our schools. We are glad to say that we have been able to continue the work this year in grades four and five of the Falls schools. The results of the work have been gratifying. The system in use is Miss Kirkwood's, by means of which one teacher said she could "teach wild Indians to sew." We are glad to note this very simple beginning of what we hope will one day be a regular department of our school work. Wherever this useful art has been introduced into schools, it is the general verdict of teachers that "the interest of parents in the work of the schools has increased, better attendance has been secured, the girls have become neater and more orderly, and that more interest has been awakened in other studies."

BIRD DAY.

On Arbor day, following the example of many schools of our land, our schools in conjunction with the Audubon society held exercises in the opera house. The special object of the program was to inspire an interest in our "feathered brothers of the air." The reasons for this departure from our regular routine work were given so fully to the public at that time that there is no need to crowd our limited space with a repetition of them. We gladly welcome every effort to inspire a love of nature and to awaken an interest in bird and plant.

HIGH SCHOOL.

The number of pupils in the High school continues to increase each year. The enrolment this year gives over one hundred pupils. A detailed report of affairs in this school is unnecessary. It is sufficient to note the satisfactory condition. As has been mentioned elsewhere in the report, a third assistant has been found necessary to carry on the work of the large classes successfully.

We are pleased to note that here as well as in the lower grades there is much interest in school room decoration. The interior of the High school room has been much improved during this last year by the addition of pictures and statuary, secured through the efforts of teachers and pupils.

In concluding we might make mention of other things of perhaps quite as much importance as those already considered, but we will add only a word expressing our appreciation for the earnest co-operation of our teachers in the effort to raise the standard of our schools. We also note with pleasure an increasing interest in our schools on the part of many parents.

Let us all remember that Franklin should have a body of schools at least equal in excellence to those found in other cities of its size.
